Ageless Allure: PIXIES

The daring cut is super-hot with celebs, whatever their age.

Halle Berry
Age: 47

Fab 40s

"The cut looks great on Halle—it suits her oval face shape and her body stature," says Rizzieri. "The slight separation and movement across the fringe has just the right amount of height and the color variation makes it modern and smart." Apply Aveda Smooth Infusion Glossing Straightener to towel-dried hair. Spray Aveda Pure Abundance Style Prep on the roots and rotate a 2-inch round brush from nape to crown in different directions; continue as you work upward. JASON LUKATEL/IMMAGI

Frank Rizzieri, Owner and Creative Director at Rizzieri Salon & Spa, has the scoop on how to steal the stars' short snips.

Teen Dream

Joselyn's rocking a "modern razor pixie cut", according to Rizzieri. Cop her look by combing in Bumble and Bumble Styling Lotion and follow up with Bumble and Bumble Thickening Spray. Using a Mason Pearson brush, blow-dry from roots to ends to create a sleek look. Run Bumble and Bumble Sumotech Wax through using fingertips; then, use a 1 1/2-inch iron on the mid and end sections (not roots) and flat-iron in the direction you want to wear it. ## 20s Cool

"This is a short, disconnected cut with one longer piece," reports Rizzieri. For a similar effect, have hair colored with one darker and one lighter panel. Use Aveda Phomollient Mousse and blow-dry with the fingers. "The cut and color will be played up regardless of whether you opt to wear it parted down the middle or to the side," he says, adding that the look is best on medium-fine hair without any wave or curl. To finish, mist with Aveda Spray Shine. DANIEL KAMBOURIS/GETTY IMAGES

Flirty 30s

"Jaime's got a great cut that works well with her face shape due to her strong jaw line," he says. "Her features don't require a lot of fullness or volume; this look is best with darker roots and lighter ends." Begin by applying Aveda Damage Control throughout hair. Blow-dry with a Mason Pearson brush, taking hair forward and backward until it falls into place. Finish with Oribe Gold Lust, re-brushing from side to side. RAY WARRICK/IMMAGI
